ADMIN

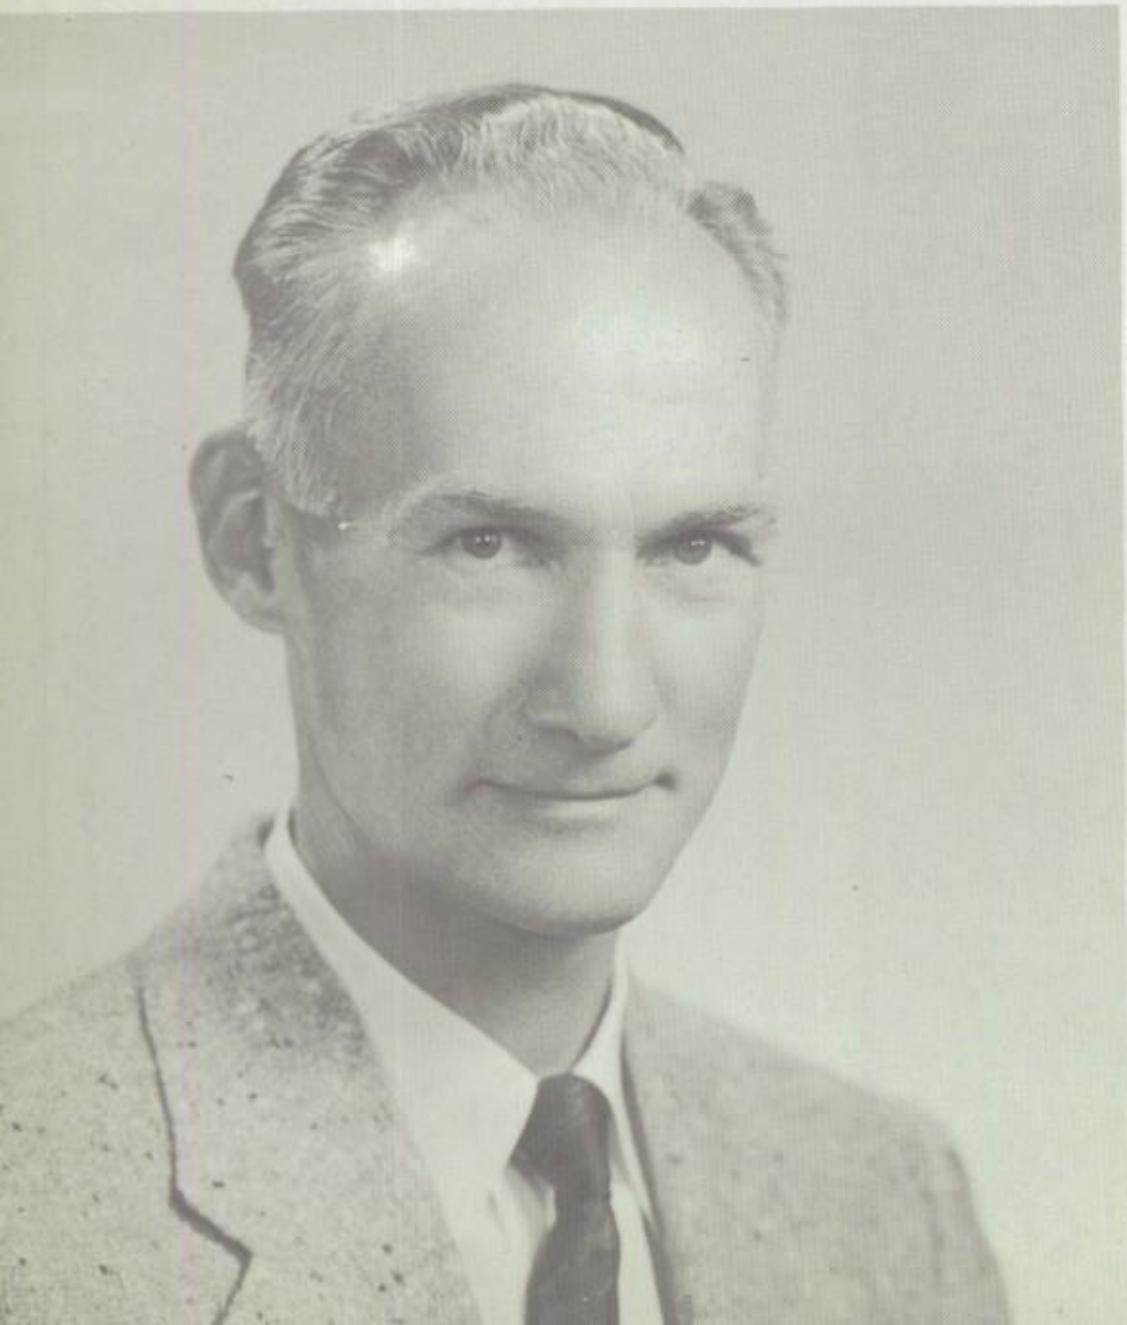
ELVA COTTERELL

As the Principal of East, Dr. Arbogast is the force behind which East moves. Building East through diligent organization and precise determination, he has strived for the ultimate in all things. His increasing efforts to make East better, and his warm handshake portray Dr. Arbogast — a man, a builder, and a friend.

Guiding students in the choice of classes and offering vocational advice are only two of the several duties of Miss Cotterell, our Assistant Principal in Charge of Curriculum and Program Supervision. A pleasant and understanding friend to students, she has given her expert experience and advice to help the students at East.



MAJOR GARFF

Serving as one of our Assistant Principals, Mr. Garff has labored tirelessly in his efforts for unity in the student body at East as well as for the individual welfare. In the position of disciplinarian, he is known for his understanding in student matters, and his interest in sports.

ISTRATION

Board of Education

Engaged in a thankless, if not demanding job, are the members of the Board of Education. A body designated as the policy-makers, they have capably assumed and carried out the responsibilities of their respective departments.

DR. BENNION

Counselors

East girls have again seen a great year under the able direction of Miss Utermann. Leading the girls through this successful year, Miss Utermann has displayed qualities of reserve and perfection in all the activities in which she has been engaged. Her interest in the school and her friendly advice have won the praise of all girls.

Performing his tasks as Counselor of Boys both quietly and efficiently, Mr. Hale has earned the respect of the boys of East. A friend to boy and girl alike, he has given advice with a reserve and humor that has endeared him and his work to the East High students.

P.T.A.

An organization designed for the betterment of the school, the P.T.A. has done a fine job in uniting the parents and teachers in a spirit of co-operation.

Throughout the year it has sponsored various activities for the parents and has worked for the welfare of East High students.

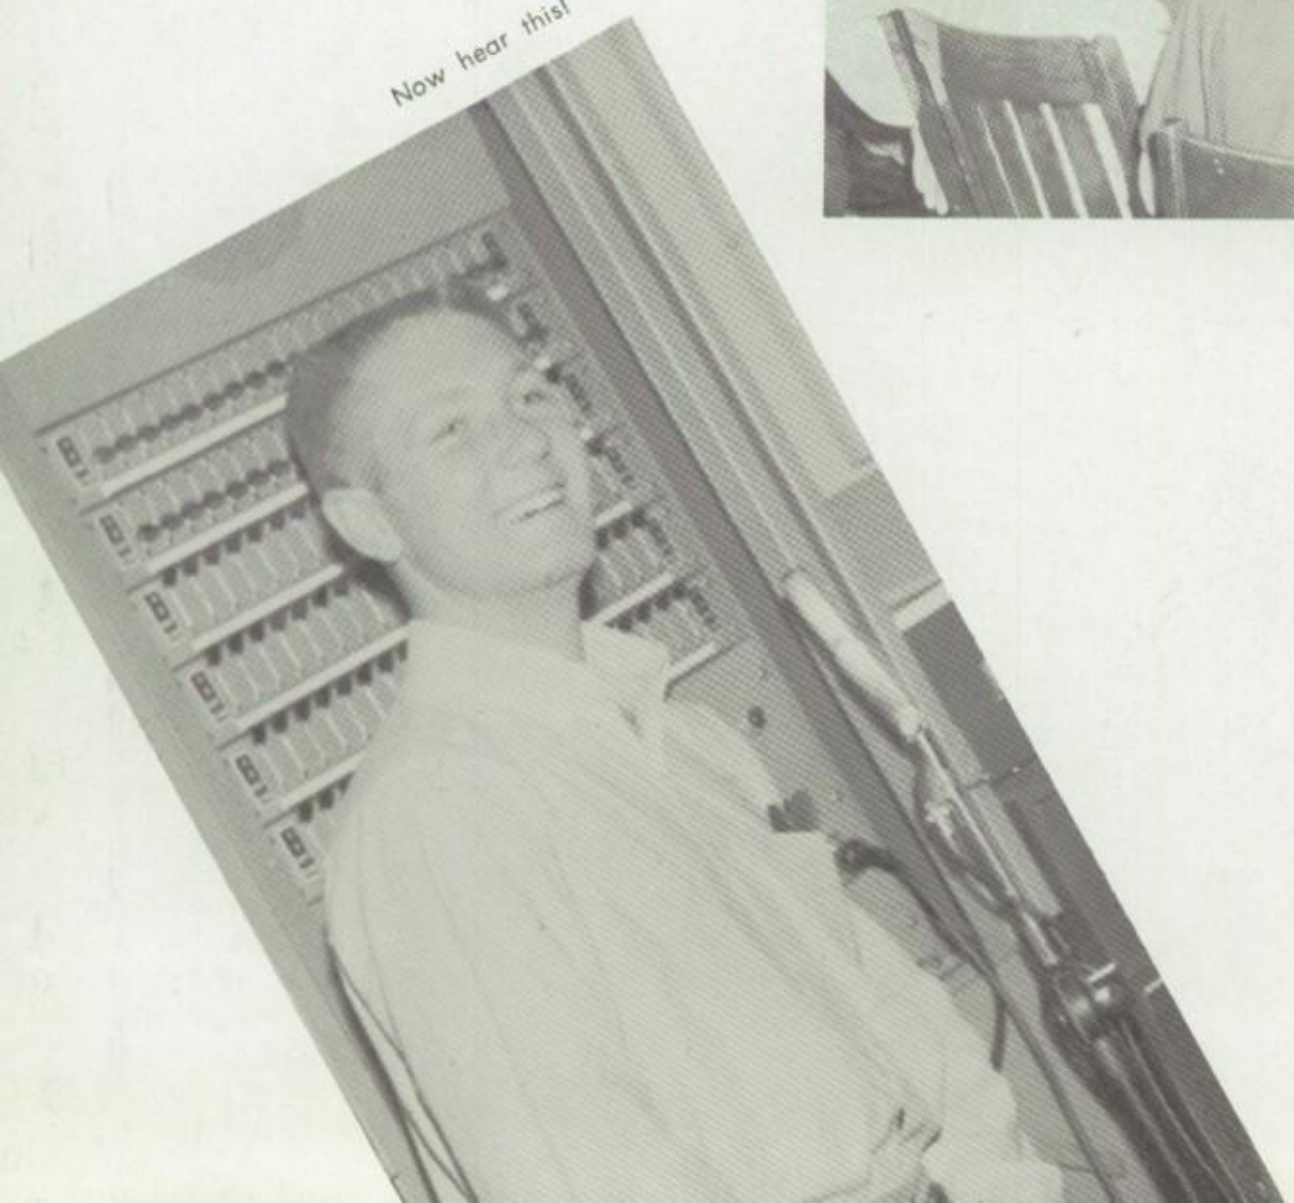
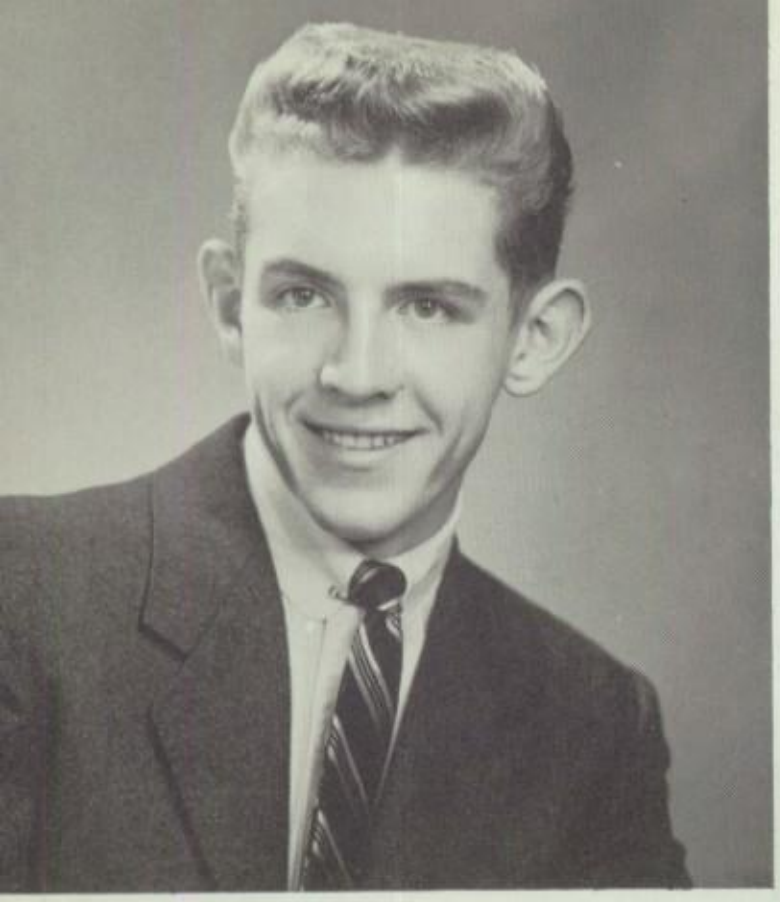
Janitor's Dream

Point of Order



Now hear this!



With the unselfish attitude of putting school affairs above all else, Walley Duncan, our six-foot plus S.A.E Vice-president has done a top-notch job. Turning out a memorable 1954 Homecoming, our versatile "veep" is a championship debater, and unusually good at vocalizing. He was indeed, a perfect "right-hand man."

Tom Early's shy smile has become as much a part of East as the seal in the front hall. The A-1 job our business manager has done this year was well demonstrated in his expert handling of the Carnival. Tom's interest in sports (football, basketball, skiing, et al) plus his ingenuity and know-how, have been a shot in the arm to his Alma Mater, and has certainly proven that Eciders know a good man when they see one.

S.A.E. Officers

Kally Souvall is just what the doctor ordered. This 98-lb. dynamo is the right prescription for any ill. She is continually exploding in bursts of laughter and "a mischievous, prankish pixie" describes her perfectly. Kally's bubbling personality is the secret to the successful year she's had as S.A.E. secretary. She's the jewel in our crown; the whipped cream on our cake.

Effervescent, vibrant, exhilarating, are Mary Dawn's private adjectives. Even getting up at 7:00 to march for Pep Club (one of her numerous activities) didn't dim the enthusiasm that permeates every inch of M. D.'s five feet, six inches. Her capabilities were well demonstrated in the book she produced under her title of East's First Historian. By now, this bundle of enthusiasm has us doubting whether or not she'll ever run out of pep.

A mischievous twinkle and a million laughs portray the sparkling and vibrant president of East '54-'55, Dick Paul. The arm that has enjoyed so much succes firing hook shots on the basketball courts has proven equally as proficient at wielding a gavel. Dick's self-assured way of presiding at assemblies, and his ever-ready smile belie leadership ability that can't be topped anywhere. The many hours he has put in before and after school are another illustration of his intense school spirit and loyalty. Dick's tireless efforts in the school's behalf have earned him bushels and bushels of praise.

Boosters

The Student Representative Council, better known as Boosters, is comprised of energetic and enterprising representatives from each home room, members of the Board of Control, and the class presidents. Led by Chairman Ralph Thomson, the Boosters pushed the Leopard Chest and P.T.A. drives, games, and dances. They maintained top-notch school spirit in all activities, approved club petitions and strived to solve all student problems presented to them.

Ralph Thomson

Board of Control

Our student executive committee, the Board of Control, worked endlessly for the students of East. Assisted by Dr. Arbogast and Mr. Garff, president Dick Paul discussed matters of school policy, finances, discipline, and S.A.E. social activities with the rest of the members and used his good judgment on the execution of all S.A.E. matters. Alert on student concerns, the members working on the Board of Control fashioned a great year for Eciders.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

Bill Brickey's most notable assets are an infectious grin and a high degree of leadership-ability — both of which enabled him to lead the A. B. of E. through another banner year. Guiding the males of the school and the Boys' Association through such activities as the Momson's Nite, the traditional Boy's Dance (beard-growing week), and other doings, "Brick" set the pace for the boys of East by being named an attendant to Mr. Touchdown, and playing his unforgettable role of "Shame" in that hilarious officer's skit. Eciders of the strong sex show their approval of the tremendous job our Boy's Association president has done by employing one of Bill's stock phrases—"hip, hip, hooray!"

Hi Jerry — Well we finally made it. I hope we will always be good friends. I want to wish you the best of luck always

Lucille Cozakos

E. H. A. G.

Lucille's quiet manner and sweet smile have made her the "darling of E.H.A.G." The success which all the E.H.A.G. activities have achieved, from the opening "Mad Hatter" get-acquainted tea featuring Alice in Wonderland, to the final Girls' Assembly, Cottons'-Day, and Dance, is a tribute to Lucille's ability as an administrator. Her hard work and tremendous ideas have resulted in making E.H.A.G. 1954-55 something to remember.

Craftsmen, who have fashioned the marbled foundation of thought and knowledge. . . Pillars of strength, of emotion, of life.
These are the Seniors.
They are columns of old, climbing in Ionic lines skyward. . .
Each one alone, defiant and massive, but giving of strength together;
And fashioned, also, by hands now sensitive to growth and texture and firmness.
Hands blackened by the toil of building ancient pillars. . . .
Hand gnarled and yellowed, yet knowing untold secrets and mysteries of life. . . .
They are the hands of experience.

Jerry,
We've really had a tremendous time in Val's room this year, & you were really a swell prexy. Have lots of fun this summer & I hope I'll see you at the "U." Loads of luck always because you're really deserving of it.
Anne Hui

The Sophomores are embryonic spires. . . .
Towers expanding over new horizons,
Multiplying, building fantastic roadways and Empires of Steel. Yet they are Abstract mobiles bounding from mediums of gayness and light. . .
Thrusting hands smooth and grasping, drawing capricious lines
And building sunshine. . . . Grasping in the brilliant newness for
Truth and knowledge.
The sophomores are tomorrow.

Dear Jerry,
I've really admired you so much this year. You're a great fellow with a great deal of personality plus. Good luck to you in the future - you certainly deserve the best. Be good, now. Your friend,
Alda Lou Evans

Dear Jer-
It has really been fun knowing you these past years - physics, double-dating, etc. I'm sorry you won't be at Roosevelt this summer - I thought I'd honk at you if you'd be there! I hope you have a fun summer counting fish et al.
Best of luck always,
Kris Malm

Dear Jerry,
You've really been a terrific home room president these two years. I want to wish you loads of success in the future.
Always,
Jane Davis

Dear Jerry,
We boys in Miss Ware's civics class will miss you and really around. Civics will settle on being called 'Mr. Plum' not mind it. You really are a lot of class spirit and pizzaz. Best luck to you always in anything you try.
Sincerely,
William Mayfield

Jerry,
Knowing you this year has been a great pleasure. Boy
I hope you've shaved out from your ride down the canyon that cold nite after Boyden's party. Best of Rod from

M/Sgt. Selto

A vital part of East's R.O.T.C. program, M/Sgt. Selto has again fashioned a group of able young men. Leading the boys in military and social skills, he headed a championship rifle team, outstanding companies, and, of course, the annual R. O. T. C. Dance in true military style.

Cheerleaders

Fireballs of Spirit, Cyclones, Bundles of Energy — any superlatives you want to use will help describe this year's cheerleaders. Dolled-up cheers and a bunch of snappy new formations have made them a terrific ornament for the football and basketball fields and courts. They've informed us that they've succeeded in getting a wholesale price on laryngitis remedies. The stiffness caused by arm-flinging, leg-splitting, and all sorts of antics have managed to keep the mercantile institutions operating in the city by the salty sea. Miss Warthen has been an efficient, cooperative sponsor, too. How about fifteen cheers for the cheerleaders ?

East-Jordan 18-6

Jordan was the first league victim to hear the fierce growl of the mighty Leopards as East triumphed 18-6 in the league opener. East not only stopped the pile-driver offense of the Jordan Beetdiggers but also put on a little show of their own. Bill Brickey, Dick Pratt, Craig McFarlane, Bob Birch, and Jim Hibbard consistantly provided gaps for some terrific running feats. Spence Clark, John Mash, and Chuck Murray took advantage of these holes, while Steve Watson, a talented Junior, romped with determination through the Jordan defense. Spence Clark scored East's first tally and Watson followed suit to leave the score 12-0 at the half. The last half saw Watson chalk up the other six points as the ball worked its way down-field in the hands of Chamberlain and Ringwood. In the final minutes of the game, Jordan fought its way to the goal lines and the game wound up at 18-6.

Managers

Left to Right, First Row: Sid Nelson, Cliff Edmunds, Glenn Pinder.
Second Row: Doug Robbins, Bob Stayner, Kirk Stromberg, Maurice Dorton.

East-Carbon 12-0

The Leopards took to the air to top Carbon's Dinos at Derks Field. After East recovered a Carbon fumble, Steve Watson tossed one to Jim Rytting who dove through two Dino defenders to complete the pass and gain 30 yards. Pete Dowse then swept left end on a lateral from Rytting to score. The Dinos stalled the Leopards during the second and third periods, but the cats got loose again in the final. Tom Early swiped a pass to set up the score which Spence Clark made from the two-yard line.

East-Granite 33-19

East boasted a big first half as they chalked up a 20-0 lead before the Farmers got warmed up, and then proceeded to send the boys from Granite home with a 33-19 defeat. The Leopards drove 62 yards in eight plays for one score as Watson, Rytting, and Clark all got in on the spree. The second half saw the junior class well represented as they proceeded to hold the farmers about even and give East the 33-19 victory.

West-East 8-6

Perhaps it's the upsets that make the traditional East-West game traditional. At least that's the way it turned out this year, as West set the whole town talking as they slid through with an 8-6 win over the dismal Leopards. If there was ever a mixed up game, this was it. Not one point was scored on an offensive play, just on the other team's errors. A West punt gave East the ball on the one-yard line and after the dust cleared on the next play, West had scored a safety and led 2-0. The Leopards got revenge as Jim Hibbard grabbed a Panther fumble and ran it over to give East the lead. Lady Luck had to have the whole show however, and a little while later, West scooped an identical East fumble and went the distance to score the fatal blow.

East-Provo 33-0

The Bulldogs from down Provo way couldn't seem to get out of the doghouse, as East went wild in the first half of a one-sided ball game, and built up a healthy score of 27-0. The Leopards left Provo in the dust from the opening kickoff as they quickly piled up a 20-0 lead before the end of the first quarter. The Bulldogs were never in the game as East managed to come through with thirteen more points before the gun to give the Leopards a final 33-0 win.

East-South 13-13

The East High Leopards, in a desperate attempt to keep their championship hopes alive, were tied 13-13 by South, who came roaring back after a 13-0 halftime score. East hit "pay pirt" fast when Howard Ringwood took the ball and scrambled 53 yards to the South 17-yard line on the first play from scrimmage. South held for two downs but Steve Watson stepped back and hit Ringwood in the end zone — anatomy or scoring area? An unsuccessful conversion attempt left the tally at 6-0. Shortly after, however, East got the ball on the South 44. Watson picked up five, Ringwood nine, then Watson ran 30 yards for a touchdown. A kick by Boyden made the score 13-0. The second half saw a South High center intercept an East pass on the 18 and with nothing between him and the goal, he scored their first tally, and the score was 13-7 after the conversion. In the fourth period, East fumbled on the 38, and a South pass brought the ball to the 15. The next play, run over by South, tied up the score and ended a heart-breaking game for a tremendous East High football team.

Dear Jerry,
First of all I thank you for the help you have given us on the Eastonia staff. I can't express my feelings adequately enough in a few lines but I'll try. We have had a very busy year and as I look back on it I realize that it has been a very successful one. We have put out a book that we can be proud of and I'm sure that the future staffs will do as much or more. Always,
Lori

Congregations in the Eastonia room every day amid sacks of peanut brittle and cream soup, extricating Rod from the wreckage of negatives, and grueling deadlines didn't mar the surprise package that the staff produced.

Club

Living up to everything the name implies, our beloved Pep Club was the backbone of East's school spirit. With activity and vast energy their by-words, they exposed every conceivable form of publicity and propaganda — some crazy, all clever. The perfection of their quick step plus a season of mad scheming saw this lively bunch march through a year of tremendous achievement.

Senior A Cappella

"If you are too busy to smile, you are too busy," is only one of Miss Bowman's famous philosophical quotes. Perhaps this type of thing plus the singing in churches, assemblies, and on Miss Bowman's lawn on Christmas Eve is what gave the A Cappella the spirit that made it one body, an unbelievably outstanding choral group.

Junior A Cappella

Turning up their larynxes every day during second period this year were the 175 juniors who comprised the Junior A'Cappella. A long list of activities on the agenda included making Christmas merry for a group of hospitalized veterans when they caroled at the Veterans' Administration Hospital at Fort Douglas. Participation in the Spring Festival and a couple of jolly parties helped to round out the year for these "Met" stars of the future.

Key Club

The younger branch of the nationally renowned Kiwanis Club, the East Key Club, tries to do scholastically what the Kiwanis Club does locally. Members of this organization have tried to keep East High's grounds clean besides volunteering their services selling programs at games and anything else that needed to be done around the school. The highlight of this year's activities was the annual banquet honoring the fellows and their mothers. President Jim Ellsworth has cooperated with the sponsor, Mr. Erickson, in achieving the success this club enjoyed.

Ushers Club

This "innocent" club enthralls those cordial disciplinarians who are more likely to help you from your seat than to one. These well-educated gentlemen have had the privilege of seeing double assemblies during the year — much to the regret of the rest of the student body. A service group for the school, they well deserve this favor and are to be commended for doing an outstanding job.

Orchestra

Providing the musical backdrop for many East Side programs, East's orchestra and Mr. Dow Young have moved to planes of amazing achievement in music circles. The virtuosos in this organization have spent tedious hours on everything from Bach to Ravel, thus providing orchestration for duets, pantomimes, and all other musical acts presented by the students during the year. Under-classmen in the orchestra have already polished their instruments for next year and for a continuation of the high quality that is typical of our music department.

Mr. Young, Harry Wesche, Ruth Eggleston, Mike Smith.

Band

"Say, when those East Side Leopards fall in line . . ." Arturo Toscaninni's symphony couldn't have played the victory song better than our high-stepping, eye-catching band members. Sacrificing their beauty sleep, these energetic Eciders tripped down the field to display dazzling formations at each home game. Mr. Dow Young, East's new band leader, has done much to sweeten soured tones, giving to the band that enthusiastic spirit which we know so well. East tips its beanie to the band which has brought such bubbling pep into our scholastic lives.

French

Anyone who could "comment-allez-vous" was welcomed into the Club Francais this year, provided they could do so with the accents in the right places. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors alike fashioned fabulous parties during the year, high-lighted with their annual Mardi Gras. Club fun was intensified with the "real French" blood of Mr. Delchambre, fresh from France and new to East.

Music Club

Strains of Brubeck and the London Symphony Orchestra poured from B-15 during the year as the Music Club gained a finer appreciation of the finer things of life. Initiating a program of exchange talent from other schools, these energetic artists had the experience of hearing the abilities of their contemporaries. The high-lights of their season included gala parties with plenty of "free" refreshments.

Sextette

It's well recognized that this group's most noticeable assets include six charming smiles and an equal number of melodious violins, along with a wonderful accompanist. East can well be proud of the good will the Sextette has created by making such pieces as "Jazz Pizzicato" and "Holiday for Strings" familiar to a wide circle of the Valley's residents.

Chess Club

CHECK CHESSMATES: An old authority named Webster defines chess as "a game played by two persons, each with sixteen pieces which can make various moves, on a board marked off into sixty-four squares." Actually the game originated in China, but . . . . those ancient Chinese would be utterly "flabberghasted" if they got so much as a peek at the perfection of East's Cress Club members who mastered the age-old game by staging class tournaments and inter-club tournaments with East, West, and South competing. East hates to brag, but Mr. Zarr, the sponsor, and Chess members put our Chess Club on top as compared with the other chess clubs of other high schools.

Chemistry Club

thers, Spence Greer, Paul Schettler

Clouds of sulfur and acids poured from the doors of C-7 every Thursday afternoon when our rubber-aproned chemists mixed intriguing potions of sodium hydroxide, hydrocloric acid, and other fascinating compounds. Comprising the Chemistry classes, these scintillating students studied sordid solutions after and beyond the call of duty. Led each night by sponsor, Mr. Brown, members learned more facts about chemistry, enjoyed the company of fellow researchers, and managed to stage a few "atomic" parties on the side.

Ice Skating Club

"For the most 'stupendous, tremendous' time of your life . . . . try skating!" chorus club members. Bundled in furry earmuffs, knee socks, woolies, and parka plus pants, they "high-tailed" it out to the rink for an evening of "thrilling and spilling." Whether you were a right-side-up champ, and up-side-down champ, or just a good ol' bench warmer, everyone got in on the fun. Headed by sponsor, Miss Gorlinski, and prexy Dick Sonntag, the Ice Skating Club became one of the largest and most active clubs at school.

Electronics

Left to Right: Mr. Powelson, George Lawrence, Tom Roth, Cleve Moler.

"Electronics Club will meet tonight at 3:20 in C-22." This simple phrase called Junior Einsteins from all classes to tassle with "ohms" and "amps," frequency modulation and to fashion machines with their knowledge obtained from "D.E." Leaving their leisure time to vegetate, these enthusiastic gentlement have built this year, a complete radio broadcasting and receiving set. They applied for a license to operate the radio and now have a call number just for East High. The first time a similar act has been performed since the war, the boys should merit a vote of thanks from other clubs.

Dance Club

The usual remark made by males when viewing the dancers of this club dressed in leotards and racing to the ballroom seems to be . . . "Wow!" However, the purpose is not for the bystander, but to further the interest in the art of creative dancing. This was accomplished under the leadership of Miss Joan Penman, and guest instructors from the University of Utah. East should be proud of this organization for its energetic addition of spice to our assemblies and activities.

Nurses

Florence Nightingale had nothing on the future Nurses of East who look enthusiastically forward to the time when they hope to devote their lives in helping the sick and handicapped. These females tried to learn all they could about the career of their choice during the past year. A worthy project at Christmas time was the stuffing of tiny animals for the youngsters at the County Hospital. Such projects indicate their interest in minimizing suffering and predict success in their future careers.

Radio and Writing Clubs

Jackie Gleason has nothing on these club members who were responsible for monthly radio programs, written and produced by its members. During the year activities ranging from dramatization to talent programs and encompassing a school news program was undertaken. One of the outstanding events of the year culminated in a T. V. program. Sponsor, Mrs. Powell, led these artists through a most unusual and successful year.

Future

The Future Statesmen Club, which may well have as members our senators and congressmen of tomorrow, has certainly not suffered inactivity this year. Their meetings featured everything from discussion of the 18-year-old vote to guest speakers in the form of congressional candidates and other government officials. Some members suffered advanced cases of corns and other foot ills after canvassing door-to-door for both political parties last fall. They also gained practical experience in politics through working at party headquarters during the fall campaign. Mr. Zarr, whose hobby seems to be sponsoring clubs, was the faculty adviser to the Statesmen.

Statesmen

Debate Club

As any debater will tell you, long hours of intensive research are the contributing factor behind his long-windedness. The fact that East High debaters have been willing to devote a great deal of time to this activity, coupled with Mr. Valois A. Zarr's capable direction, has caused our debaters to come out on top in more than one forensic meet. Far be it for the debaters to suffer a maladjusted social life either, for they have thrown several bashes including an o'rousque treasure hunt.

Ski

Those sassy shuss-boomers you saw streaking down the Alta and Brighton slopes are none other than the snow bunnies which make up one of the largest and most prominent clubs at East. Saturdays they bustled into chartered buses and were ready to tackle the hills. Activities have included a party in February to which the "wizards of the waxed boards" came dressed in their favorite attire. What attire?? Ski togs, of course! East is proud to mention that many "alums" of Ski Club have been rated as some of the most spectacular and renowned skiers that Utah has ever produced !

Club

Second Row: Arlene Nelson, Mr. Bassett, Julia Burgoyne.

Mixers Club

Mixers Club has been as much a part of the spirit of East this year as Ed Plum. This group started off the school's parties and dances with flying colors, and they made sure that everyone had fun. They had practice along this line with their own festivities. Mr. Bassett, sponsor, combined his pep and "know-how" with that of the members to make Mixers Club one of the greatest.

Stage Crew

Essentially more important to the success of any assembly than the antics of those who don the grease paint, is the sterling efforts put forth by the always-active stage chew. Although their contributions to the staging of any production are not so easily realized, they are the people who "put the show on the road." Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Edvalson, the stage crew has constructed new scenery, kept equipment in order, and produced noontime movies, and done an all-round top-notch job.

Bowling

"STRIKE!" . . . . this is the familiar cry of our Bowling Club when seen at the local alleys. Sponsored by Mr. Iverson, who is quite a bowler himself, club members hit the alleys every Wednesday to polish up their skills for the tournaments. Because of the enthusiasm for the game, and the fun that went along with participating in the extra-curricular activities, the club had a marvelous year.

Swimming Club

"Dippin' and Divin' " was the favorite past-time of those gals an guys in East's Swim Club. These paddlers, sponsored by Mr. Lam bert, headed for a high time in the $H_20$. Their club meetings consi of aqua-antics in the local pools, and even though these flippe ranged from pensive polywogs to fully-submerged mermaids an men, they had fun attempting to stay afloat.

andle. Second Row: Antoinette Ahlrichs, Miss Cramer, Glen Maw.

Spanish Club

A "South of the Border" atmosphere was prevalent in this friendly gathering of amigos. Here, newly formed Spaniards learned Latin American dances, games, and enjoyed such festive gatherings as a Christmas Pinata executed under the direction of Miss Cramer. These and many other activities high-lighted the social season for the would-be-Spaniards.

* I hate people who write over their faces... but when it's ugly, what can you do?

Jr. Red Cross

These busy little humanitarians had their fingers in many a worthy pie during the school year. They created decorations for a festive celebration at the V.A. Hospital with gala centerpieces and stuffed stockings. Reading at the Neighborhood House rounded out a season of charitable and worth-while activities — models for the rest of the student body.

German Club

Ich Liebe Dich is the pass word to the hard-working, interesting German Club. Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Zarr, these bright students of the language arts have enjoyed a fine year of entertainment and great progress in "Deutsch"!

Golf Club

That old Scottish sport of golf saw East's enthusiasts of the game shooting over the windswept fairways this spring. The team looked forward to the tournaments and got in practice under the able supervision of Nilts Larson. The Golf Team participated in several tourneys and got its share of honors — especially that of learning and mastering the game.

of something to say ... now the time has come for me to put all these little thoughts down ... without further delay — I thought of saying "thanks" with a real sincere, distinguished and deep meaning. . . then I decided that "thanks" wasn't enough ... the word isn't big enough ... should I say "thanks for bumbing into C.C. and me in Kresge (yeh, man!) many years ago - or should I say "thanks" to all of us who went to the Cadet Hop in '52? ... perhaps I should thank my courage in finally asking you to the G.O.D. in '52 - and you for going! No - "thanks" just didn't seem to cover all the wonderful times we've had ... gee, G.O.D. and thanks to your good ol' mom, the St. Crow ... (wow!) ... and besides all the neat dances, the shows, parties and well, gosh ... just everything we've done together has just been the very best of fun ... it's just fun being with you. No, Jerry - just telling you "thanks" is just too small a little word. (And, especially thanks for staying awake tonight - golly, only 4 a.m. & we're still up! ... that is sorta awake!) Just "thanks" - See ... from the bottom of my heart.

You are really a wonderful guy - even though sometimes we both wonder! There's just something extra in your corny smile and laughing eyes that's just impossible to forget - and makes me a "d.h." Even your stubborn little way isn't too bad - it shows something good, but don't ask me what! All and all and in true honesty - - you really are a pretty wonderful guy.

I know that these years are going to be unforgetable ones in my life - we have mastered a few little bumps, and not only the bumps from the jeep!, and, Jerry, we always manage to come out on top ... in everything! the respect, the honor, (and the obidence!!) and the appreciation that I'll always have - is and will always remain on a high pedestal.

It's hard to put down just how I've felt and feel, and I guess I really shouldn't. It should be enough for you to know I say "thanks" and enough for me to say so ... and yet, it isn't. But ... instead of babbering on I'll just tell you you'd just better never forget I think a heck of a lot of you!.

Our friendship can't be surpassed by anyone. Our relationship as boy and girl has been a wonder, it is something that everyone should have ... I won't say "let's always be friends" that's silly ... I'll say instead ... we will always be friends!.

Thanks, Jer, for putting up with me. It's been a lot of fun being "your girl" for these years - and I only wish I could stay and keep being "your girl" ... believe me, it was an experience!

The very, very best of luck to you always ... you certainly deserve it ... may you choose your goal with a firm mind, and proceed toward it with a determined step ... securing happiness on the way.

love,

x.. I'm warning you - I'm still a d.h. and shall be hard to shake!

precious moments...

Two rosy lip prints and a blush . . . the state tournament game . . . crazy hat day . . . these are the precious moments of high school days recorded in your yearbook. A generation from now these events will loom up from the page as more than vivid recollections — thanks to the pictures, the artwork, the color, the terse prose which your editor, through the magic of lithography, has set into print.

Wé have enjoyed working with your splendid yearbook staff in designing and producing this volume which portrays so graphically the events of 1954 and 1955.
